2019 UNITED We Thrive
Andrews Volunteer Award Submission

Award Description
The Andrews Volunteer Award recognizes the contribution that a volunteer makes to the mission of United Way and the cause of caring for others. The award is presented to a volunteer who best exhibits commitment, enthusiasm, caring, and support in work that advances Thrive2027 Goals*.

Eligibility
An individual may not win the same award for two consecutive years.

Application Requirements
- All nominee information must pertain to 2018 calendar year activities.
- Please submit at least one high-resolution photo of the individual in action. While photos will not be used for judging purposes, they might be used to recognize the organization at the recognition event or online. Please send photo in jpeg format.
- Please do not include hyperlinks, flyers, newsletters, etc. embedded into the nomination forms. Feel free to include separate materials as attachments.

Release
Once submitted, all entries become the property of United Way of Greater Portland. They might be used in whole or in part in United Way’s communications and promotions and might be shared with United Way Worldwide. The individual submitting the application (1) assumes responsibility for obtaining all necessary consent and releases for use of any information, including photographs; and (2) warrants he/she has authority to use these materials and that UWGP may use these materials as described; and (3) releases United Way from any liability associated with such use.

Timeline and Process
- Applications are due January 31, 2019. Submit applications at awards@unitedwaygp.org.
- Staff Review: Staff reviews applications for eligibility and completeness and may contact applicants if questions arise.
- Committee Review & Selection: The committee, made up of volunteers from the community, will review and rate each submission using a scoring rubric. Committee members then come together to make final recommendations and selections. Judges’ decisions are final.
- Notification: Awards will be announced at the UNITED We Thrive event on April 23, 2019 at the Holiday Inn By The Bay.
